

A photograph of three people—two men and one woman—standing in front of a large, multi-story house with a prominent dormer. The man on the left is wearing a blue plaid blazer and glasses. The woman in the center is wearing a green textured blazer. The man on the right is wearing a dark blue blazer. They are all smiling. The background shows a well-maintained lawn and a body of water.

Dennis Ulrich, Meredith Hillyer,
and Bryan Beauchemin

The Face of FINE RESIDENTIAL CONSTRUCTION

Lynbrook of Annapolis

For more than 30 years, Lynbrook of Annapolis has proudly served the greater Annapolis area as a trusted custom home builder. Known for exceptional craftsmanship and value, Lynbrook delivers homes defined by quality, integrity, and attention to detail.

As a deliberately small, highly experienced team, Lynbrook provides consistent communication and a hands-on approach from start to finish, creating a personalized experience where every client feels heard and supported. Each project is met with thoughtful solutions, collaboration with design professionals, precision, and care to ensure no detail is overlooked and homes are built to the highest standards.

Working closely with architects and design professionals, Lynbrook supports a unified vision rooted in the belief that homes should be crafted to last a lifetime. Lynbrook Legacy, Lynbrook's service department, reflects a longstanding commitment to client care, extending trusted expertise to both new service clients and homeowners long after project completion.

LYNBROOK OF ANNAPOLIS

4 Annapolis Street, Suite 4
Annapolis, MD 21401 | 410.295.3313
lynbrookofannapolis.com